Verses of the Senior Monks 2.43

The Book of the Twos

Chapter Five

Brahmāli

Whose faculties have become serene,

like horses tamed by a charioteer?

With conceit and defilements given up,

who is such as envied by even the gods?

My faculties have become serene,

like horses tamed by a charioteer.

With conceit and defilements given up,

I am such as envied by even the gods.
